

House Resolution No. 3148

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State residents who have devoted their time and energy to assisting in the educational opportunities of each generation of local societal leaders; and

Whereas, Jay Wilkins of Neosho, Missouri, has attained distinction as a member of the professional staff at Crowder College; and

Whereas, universally praised for his unparalleled efforts as the Crowder College Farm Supervisor, Jay Wilkins has added another honor and accolade to his extensive list of accomplishments through his selection as the Professional Staff Employee of the Year for 2003; and

Whereas, chosen for his stellar recognition by the Anderson Chamber of Commerce, Jay Wilkins received his Professional Staff Employee of the Year award on April 16, 2003, on the basis of his team attitude, hard work, and dedication to the esteemed educational institution; and

Whereas, Jay Wilkins is known on the Crowder College campus for having a time-consuming job that requires him to be at work 365 days per year; and

Whereas, Jay Wilkins is often seen early in the morning riding a three-wheeler out to check a cow that is calving, and again late at night chasing away dogs that are bothering sheep; and

Whereas, an employee at Crowder College for twelve years, Jay Wilkins is a true professional who amply demonstrates in word and deed the ideals of the field of agriculture and the goals of higher education:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Jay Wilkins as the Crowder College Professional Staff Employee of the Year for 2003 and to convey to him this legislative body's heartiest congratulations and our best wishes for continued success in life for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Jay Wilkins of Neosho, Missouri.
